

Scott Cummings

Scott Cummings is the General Manager for the Antelope Valley Mall. Scott has been in the shopping industry for over 30 years. Scott has been employed with the Antelope Valley Mall for the past 18 years.

Prior to being named General Manager in 2008, Scott Cummings served as the Specialty Leasing Manager and Assistant Manager to the Mall. Through his work with Forest City Enterprises, Scott has participated in over 10 grand openings.

Scott has completed his certifications and has been awarded a Certified Shopping Center Manager and Specialty Leasing designation through the International Council of Shopping Centers. In May 2014, Scott was elected by his community to participate in the 61st National Security Forum at Maxwell Air Forces Base for a week of training with other local leaders from their communities.

Scott is an active director with the Antelope Valley Broad of Trade and was the 2013-2014 President of that organization. He was Chairman of the AVBOT's Business Outlook Conference in 2013.

Scott was also a Director for the Palmdale Sheriff Boosters 2012 – 2016 and is still involved in Casino Night, their largest fundraiser.

Scott was a director for the Antelope Valley College Foundation Board of Directors from January 2015 through December 2016.

He has participated in the LA County Air Show as a sponsor of the "Friends and Family" tent for both the USAF Thunderbirds and USN Blue Angels for the past three years and was elected to the Air Show's Board of Directors in May 2017.

In September of 2017, Scott was elected as a director to the Edwards Air Force Base Civilian-Military Support Group.

2019. Scott was elected an Honorary Commander, 412 TW/AMXS by Brigadier General Teichert for a two-year commitment.

Scott is married to Kimberly and has three children and three grandchildren. Scott enjoys racing motorcycles and camping with friends and family.